

Please resist weakening Indiana's Telephone Privacy law. Banks are doing just fine, they don't need extra opportunities to invite their customers to give away more of their money.